

GIVE LIKE GOD

The Means for Generosity

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

When you reap your harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, that the Lord your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

When you beat your olive trees,
you shall not go over them again. It shall be for the sojourner, the
fatherless, and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not strip it afterward. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore, I command you to do this.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field right up to its edge, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest.

Leviticus 19:9-10

And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard.

Leviticus 19:9-10

You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the Lord your God.

Leviticus 19:9-10

Interpreting the Law of God:

Interpreting the Law of God:

1. Three Categories – Civil,
Ceremonial, and Moral.

“Do not trim off the hair on your temples or trim your beards. Do not cut your bodies for the dead, and do not mark your skin with tattoos. I am the Lord.”

Leviticus 19:27-28

Interpreting the Law of God:

1. Three Categories – Civil,
Ceremonial, and Moral.

Interpreting the Law of God:

1. Three Categories – Civil, Ceremonial, and Moral.
2. Jesus summarizes the law in two statements – love God and love your neighbor.

Interpreting the Law of God:

1. Three Categories – Civil, Ceremonial, and Moral.
2. Jesus summarizes the law in two statements – love God and love your neighbor.
3. Jesus came to fulfill God's law.

There are things God has given to you that were never meant for you.

Lifestyle Creep:

When an individual's standard of living increases as their income increases and former luxuries become new necessities.

The danger comes when lifestyle creep prevents generosity.

There are things God has given to
you that were never meant for you.

When you reap your harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, that the Lord your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

When you beat your olive trees,
you shall not go over them again. It shall be for the sojourner, the
fatherless, and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not strip it afterward. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore, I command you to do this.

Deuteronomy 24:19-22

“It shall be for...”

You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore, I command you to do this.

Deuteronomy 24:22

givelikegod.com

