really is matters.

There was a man in the land of Uz
whose name was Job.

What do we do when God
doesn't make sense to us?

And the Lord said to Satan, “Behold,
all that he has is in your hand.”

Job 1:12

“The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.” In all this Job did not sin or charge God with wrong.

Job 1:21-22

Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind and said: “Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Dress for action like a man; I will question you, and you make it known to me.”

Job 38:1-3

“Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding...”

He is greater than me.

...Who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk in it.

Isaiah 42:5

I rise up; You discern my thoughts

Then the Lord answered Job...

Job 38:1

“We are told that Yahweh answered Job out of the storm. This phrase, as generic as it looks to us in English, is significant... in Hebrew idiom, to “speak to” someone indicates a one-way communication of an authority to an inferior, while to “answer” or “reply to” expresses a dialogue between two parties. It is striking, then, that when God shows up, he enters into a dialogue—he does not come to simply denounce.

In other words, God is inviting Job into a relationship.”

- Tim Keller

God invites us into something better - a relationship with Him.

...working all things together for the good of those who love Him.

Romans 8:28
