Acts 17:22-27

You are who you are and where you are
so the people around you
might come to know God.

You are who you are and where you are
so the people around you
might come to know God.

For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well. My frame was not hidden from you. when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed substance; in your book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them.

Psalm 139:13-16

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

1 Corinthians 12:4-7

You are who you are and where you are
so the people around you
might come to know God.

You are who you are and where you are
so the people around you
might come to know God.

You are who you are and where you are
so the people around you
might come to know God.

“The mission of God requires that believers leverage their lives for His glory. The Great Commission is not for a select few; it is for the entirety of the church. The movement of God’s mission sweeps across everyday, ordinary lives to draw in businesspeople, soccer moms, grandmothers, neighbors, students, lawyers, teachers, baristas, contractors, white collar, blue collar, or no collar at all.

Regular people like you and me...filled with His spirit, laying down our lives, denying ourselves for the mission of God and the good of others. This is the invitation...this is God's plan to change the world.”

- Aaron Coe

Being an Ordinary, Everyday Missionary:
Intentionality

“We need to move from a mindset of additional to intentional. What if God has actually given us this amazing way of seeing life that would make all of life one big, huge opportunity for discipleship and mission? Like everything we’re already doing, what if it’s already an opportunity, perfect for discipleship and mission?”

- Caesar Kalinowski
